There’s a lot more to on-campus housing than just, well, housing.

As much as going to college is about the big things — classes, exams, getting a degree — it’s also about the little things: making choices, making friendships, making your mark.

Our communities are the only place you’re likely to encounter an impromptu study session in the hallway, a philosophical discussion over late-night pizza, or find common ground among a sea of strangers.

What’s more, where you live during your time at UCR will actually impact the quality of your college experience. That’s because activities and amenities have been specifically designed to enhance your studies and help you achieve your personal and professional goals.

Want proof?
National studies have repeatedly shown that students who live on campus are more successful, are more involved, have greater contact with faculty, report higher GPAs, and are more likely to continue and complete their studies on time, as compared to those who live off-campus or commute.

Then, too, there’s the human factor — our professional staff and trained student advisors — that transforms our 11 housing communities into the sort of safe, comfortable and nurturing environments thousands of fellow students have learned to rely on.

Whether you’re a first-year student leaving home for the first time, a transfer student looking to acclimate to a new campus, or a continuing student looking to get the most out of their time at UCR, there’s an on-campus housing option that’s right for you.

We can’t wait to welcome you to your new home away from home.

THREE HOUSING OPTIONS OPEN TO YOU

FIRST-TIME FRESHMAN STUDENTS: Residence Halls

First-time Freshman students are eligible to live in one of our four Residence Halls, which offer both traditional dormitory-style living, or suite-style housing with semi-private bathrooms.

More than merely a place to sleep, the communities are home to a wealth of services and amenities: dining venues, markets, computer labs, study areas, resident-only fitness rooms, music practice spaces, secure laundry facilities and more. Libraries, classrooms and the medical center are all conveniently located close by.

And for those seeking an even more immersive experience, we offer 10 Living-Learning Communities (LLCs). See page 16 for details. Residents have 24/7 access to a wealth of programs, leadership opportunities, academic resources and professional staff — all working to help students grow and succeed Freshman year.

For more information, see page 6
TRANSFER & CONTINUING STUDENTS:

Campus Apartments OR Residence Halls

Transfer and continuing students (second-year and beyond) have the option to move into one of our Residence Halls, or the choice of one of six different campus apartment communities.

Each apartment community has its own personality, but ALL provide a combination of independence with just the right amount of support, services and programming. You’ll enjoy living on your own without actually having to, you know, live all on your own.

The Glen Mor community, in particular, was designed as a bridge between the Residence Hall program and apartment life; it’s also the home of Pathways, a Living-Learning Community (LLC) exclusively for new and continuing Transfer students.

Students with Families:

UCR offers a community of one- and two-bedroom apartments featuring special facilities and programs for families. Please note: there is currently a waiting list for Family Housing.

For more information, see page 36
RESIDENCE HALL

THE ALL-INCLUSIVE HOUSING OPTION FOR UNDERGRADUATES

It’s everything a student needs: a fully furnished room; a welcoming community of future friends and caring staff; dining venues that offer delicious, nutritious meals (see page 12); secured facilities, 24/7 assistive services, and most essential campus buildings located just steps away. We don’t just give you a room. We give you room to grow.

SERVING UP DELICIOUS, NUTRITIOUS, INCLUSIVE & INTERNATIONAL OPTIONS, WITH FOOD THAT’S COOKED FRESH — IN SMALL BATCHES — BY REAL COOKS
Just as today’s Residence Halls are a far cry from old-style dormitories, UCR’s Residential Restaurants are a world apart from conventional college cafeterias.

The restaurant at Lothian and the spectacular two-story Glasgow restaurant, located next to Dundee (left), were designed to create a sense of community — comfortable social hubs focused around food, with high-speed wireless Internet and all-you-care-to-eat meals at several different food stations.

Our “Seeds of Change” initiative has brought delicious, nutritious, sustainable and inclusive dining to every meal and at every location we operate on campus.

So next to favorites like pizza, burgers and burritos, you’ll find healthy vegetarian and vegan fare; halal and gluten-friendly options; spa waters and other alternatives to sugary beverages; salad bars with locally sourced, in-season fruits and vegetables, including items grown in UCR’s famed citrus groves; and international entrées inspired by cultures across the globe.

UCR Dining. Catering to your needs. In every sense of the word.
DINING PLANS

HIGHLANDER UNLIMITED
OUR BEST VALUE!

Unlimited meal swipes means you eat whenever you want, whether it’s a full meal or just a healthy snack. This plan is perfect for those who love flexibility, or someone who enjoys eating multiple small meals a day. The Highlander Unlimited Plan also comes with 60 Dining Dollars per quarter, and four Guest Passes per quarter — great for family and friends!

$720/month averages less than $8 for each all-you-care-to-eat meal, not to mention all the in-between snacks and extras you want!

Dining Plans are billed monthly, Oct–June, on your UCR student account.
HIGHLANDER 150
TASTY & THRIFTY

The perfect mix of affordability and practicality. This plan includes 150 delicious meals each quarter — nearly 14 meals a week. Also includes 150 Dining Dollars per quarter, good at every dining location and market on campus. You’ll also get six Guest Passes per quarter. $630/month

OTHER DINING VENUES

In addition to the two Residential Restaurants, GLASGOW and LOTHIAN, UCR Dining operates a number of additional restaurants and markets, offering everything from grab-and-go snacks to complete gourmet meals.

The MARKET AT GLEN MOR features UCR’s only Starbucks, along with Sizzle (grill options) and Savor (hot & cold entrées); EMBEREE’S, IVAN’S and BYTES are three smaller venues featuring coffee drinks, pastries and hot sandwiches; THE BARN, newly remodeled, features four food stations and a full bar (for students over 21, of course); and the MARKET AT NORTH DISTRICT opens this fall, featuring hot entrées, boba, soft-serve ice cream and coffee. All venues accept Dining Dollars; Savor also accepts Meal Swipes.

THREE ADDITIONAL OPTIONS FOR APARTMENT RESIDENTS

THE RESIDENTIAL — 50 Meal Swipes & 210 Dining Dollars per quarter. $630/month

THE MARKET — 300 Dining Dollars each quarter. $100/month

DINING DOLLARS ONLY — Pay-as-you-go program offers Dining Dollars at up to a 15% discount. 115 Dining Dollars for $100

Dining Plans are required for residents of Glen Mor; optional for other campus apartment residents. For more information about Dining Plans or restaurants, visit dining.ucr.edu
LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITIES
Looking to live life larger? Then consider moving into a Living-Learning Community (LLC). It’s an opportunity to live with students with common academic interests, identities or backgrounds — connections that can help guide you through the academic and social transitions throughout your time at UCR.

“Academic LLCs” are connected specifically to colleges and/or majors; “Themed LLCs” are for those with similar backgrounds and/or interests.

Why choose an LLC?
Living in an LLC will allow you to connect with a community in a focused and specialized way. There are programs to help you establish social and professional networks, which can have lifelong benefits, and connect you with relevant campus partners and student organizations.

You will have the space to talk about a wide range of topics related to the community’s theme. Finally, there are fun and engaging events planned with the community in mind, including field trips, guest speakers, academic workshops, social functions and much more.

You can select the LLC you’re interested in when you fill out your Housing Contract. Descriptions of all current LLCs are on the following two pages.

The security of our residents isn’t just one of our jobs: it’s our most important job, our #1 Core Value.

We utilize a variety of tools to keep you safe, including restricted access to all freshman housing communities, video surveillance, uniformed patrols, late-night escorts and community awareness.

Emergency call boxes and blue emergency phones, like the one pictured here, can be found throughout our residential communities. And our highly trained, live-in staff is available 24/7.

Finally, UC Riverside has its own professional police department, with its headquarters located just a short distance away from our residences.
Part of keeping residents safe is keeping them healthy. These days, that means facing Covid-19 head-on.

A year ago, as the pandemic hit, we quickly adapted our buildings and procedures: limiting occupancy; shifting restaurants to take-out only; increasing sanitation schedules; mandating weekly testing for both residents and staff in our Residence Halls; and establishing a highly effective quarantine program for the few who tested positive.

While we are still working out what precautions may be needed this fall — fortunately, the worst appears to be over, and campus life is slowly returning to normal — you can rest assured that we will continue to zealously protect the health and safety of everyone who lives and works with us.
WE DON'T JUST GIVE YOU A ROOM.
WE GIVE YOU ROOM TO GROW.
