RESIDENTIAL CONDUCT FLOW CHART

AN INTRODUCTION TO HOUSING RESIDENTIAL STUDENT CONDUCT POLICIES

Dear UCR Community Member,

Thank you for choosing to be part of our residential housing community. We take pride in providing you with a safe and welcoming environment. We strive to continually improve our programs and facilities, in order to provide you with the best possible academic and social setting in your journey toward educational advancement.

Your participation and citizenship in the UCR campus are essential components to creating a thriving community. We look to our students to aid in the development of strong social networks; to be the eyes and ears of our community; and to ensure that our community standards are respected.

Whether you are a first year student, a returning student, a doctoral candidate or a family member residing within our Family Housing area, our expectations for your conduct and your involvement in our community remain consistent. We expect that all members of our community are knowledgeable of their STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES and that students abide by all HOUSING RESIDENTIAL STUDENT CONDUCT POLICIES, both of which are provided within this handbook.

In addition to the Housing Residential Student Conduct Policies outlined, all UCR students are expected to know and follow the University Student Conduct Code regulations. These policies can be obtained at the Office of Student Conduct & Academic Integrity Programs located in 111 Costo Hall or via their web page (conduct.ucr.edu).

As citizens within the UCR community and the residential housing environment, it is our hope that you will display your concern for the UCR community by reporting policy violations that may be harmful to fellow students, by being actively involved in campus activities; and by participating in projects which enhance our university campus, as well as the surrounding community.

Please be sure to take the time to review the information enclosed within this handbook, as it will be an invaluable guide to you in partnering with our staff to create a dynamic and enriching community atmosphere. We look forward to your contributions and citizenship within our community!

HOW DO I REPORT AN ALLEGED VIOLATION OF CONDUCT POLICY?

If you have witnessed an incident which you believe is a violation of the UCR Housing Residential Student Conduct Policies, you have a responsibility to report this incident to UCR staff members. You can report infractions of these policies to any of the following contacts:

IN AN EMERGENCY SITUATION:

- ▶ UC Police Department (951) 827-5222 or 911

IN A NON-EMERGENCY SITUATION:

- ▶ Your Resident Advisor
- ▶ Your Resident Director/Assistant Director
- ▶ Your Resident Services Office (RSO)
- ▶ Housing Services Administration Building

See the directory towards the back of this handbook, or search online at housing.ucr.edu, for specific contact information for your housing area.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS IN THE HOUSING RESIDENTIAL STUDENT CONDUCT PROCESS

WHY DID I GET CONTACTED TO SET UP A MEETING?

An incident occurred where you may be involved. A report was filed and forwarded to the Resident Director/Assistant Director (RD/AD). The RD/AD is responsible for deciding what policy(ies) may have been violated (if any) and who will follow-up regarding the incident. From the time a report is filed, the RD/AD will typically contact you within 3 business days (Monday-Friday non-holidays are considered working days). After this contact is made, you can expect to have a meeting, most often with the RD/AD, within 5 working days. Additionally, residents may be referred to the campus conduct system based on the severity of the incident.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN I MEET WITH MY RESIDENT DIRECTOR/ ASSISTANT DIRECTOR (RD/AD) REGARDING AN ALLEGED POLICY VIOLATION?

These meetings may be either a less-formal Administrative Meeting or a formal Administrative Review Meeting, at the discretion of the RD/AD. In an Administrative meeting, the RD/AD will discuss the purpose of the meeting and then the behavior that may have violated policy. The RD/AD will discuss with the resident what occurred and why, and possible ramifications for the community. In an Administrative meeting, the RD/AD will not assess responsibility for policy violations. The RD/AD and the resident will consider potential follow-up options. You will then be sent an email letter summarizing your meeting.

In an Administrative Review Meeting, the RD/AD typically begins by explaining the conduct process. They share information from the incident report and/or other documentation and will ask you to share your perspective of the incident. Based upon your input and all of the information, including from other involved individuals, the RD/AD will decide to what extent you are responsible for the policy violation(s). You will then be sent an email letter summarizing your meeting and the RD/AD's decision. If you are found to be responsible for violating one or more policies, the RD/AD will issue appropriate sanctions.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I DO NOT SCHEDULE OR ATTEND A MEETING?

Failing to attend an Advisory Meeting will shift your case into the formal conduct process. Should you take no action to schedule or attend an Administrative Review Meeting, a decision may be made without the benefit of your input based on available information in the report and collected from other involved individuals. Additionally, failing to schedule or attend a meeting may result in an academic hold being placed on your account (which restricts you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts, and more actions related to your academic record).

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF A SANCTION?

A sanction is a consequence that typically includes an assignment or duty to complete. Sanctions are intended to be predominantly educational, encouraging a student to reflect on past behaviors and consider future options. Additionally, sanctions serve to deter additional violations. Often sanctions will be determined at the meeting, but some situations require time to consider all of the information and then issue an appropriate sanction. Previous policy violations are considered when determining an appropriate sanction.

WHAT IF I DON'T COMPLETE A SANCTION?

Failing to complete a sanction is considered another policy violation. If you fail to complete a sanction in a timely or satisfactory manner, you will face further disciplinary action and potentially an academic hold (which restricts you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts, and more actions related to your academic record).

WHO WILL FIND OUT ABOUT THIS?

Housing and Residential Life staff members value confidentiality and avoid discussing your case outside of this process. Federal law requires that a student must sign a release in order for a university official to discuss specific incidents and consequences with the student's family members or future employers.

Parents/Guardians can be notified when a student is found responsible for an underage drinking violation or any illegal drug possession violation.

HOW LONG WILL THIS BE ON MY TRANSCRIPT?

Residential conduct-related records and information are not part of an academic transcript. However, cases which involve possible violations of the University Standards of Conduct will be forwarded to the office of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity Programs for review.

CAN I APPEAL A DECISION?

Yes. In order to appeal you must have one or more of the following reason(s):

- ▶ Severity of the sanction is inappropriate based on what you were found responsible for
- ▶ Introduction of new evidence not available at the hearing
- ▶ Lack of procedural due process (your student rights were not honored)

An appeal must be made in writing, using the link provided in the decision letter sent by your hearing officer, within three business days of the decision. The appeal will be assigned to one of the Residential Life appellant hearing officers.

Appeals are a review of the conduct process and not a rehearing of the case. Appeals made based on introduction of new evidence may result in a rehearing of the case based on new pertinent information.

WHAT IS FERPA?

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 is a federal regulation that guarantees students and/or their parents access to all educational records that pertain to them and protects the privacy of these records. Upon reaching the age of 18 or enrolling in an institute of higher education, the student is the primary owner of the record. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. Students have the right to inspect and review their own educational records as well as to request that the school correct records believed to be inaccurate or misleading. Students may waive their rights under FERPA through a signed document and can rescind the waiver of those rights at any time.

UCR HOUSING RESIDENTIAL STUDENT CONDUCT POLICIES

(Revised August 2021)

INTERIM POLICIES SPECIFIC TO COVID-19 ARE FOUND BELOW.

Policies labeled as “INTERIM” supplement housing policies while University, State, and Riverside County orders and policies pertaining to infectious disease are in place. Where these INTERIM policies and standing policies conflict, the more stringent rule is to be followed. Given the changing nature of the Covid-19 Pandemic, these policies can be strengthened or relaxed based upon health officials’ recommendation and guidelines set forth by the university, local and county officials, and the state of California. It is the resident’s responsibility to be aware of these university, local, county and state of California regulations.

- ▶ Residents should monitor symptoms and submit the daily wellness survey online.
- ▶ Participate in regular or surveillance COVID-19 testing as prescribed by the university.
- ▶ Face mask worn covering both the nose and mouth are required indoors whenever one is not within their personal apartment and/ or room, including community lounges, bathrooms, computer labs, game rooms, laundry rooms, fitness areas, visiting another resident’s apartment/room, etc.
- ▶ Guest not affiliated with UCR (non-UCR students, faculty, and staff) are prohibited from visiting and entering any UCR Residential Community Facility.
- ▶ Guest affiliated with UCR (UCR students, faculty, and staff) must show proof of vaccination or provide self-attestation to being fully vaccinated prior to visiting and entering any UCR Residential Community Facility upon request.
- ▶ It is highly recommended that residents do not travel more than 100 miles from campus on public transportation (planes, trains, and buses). If you do, you are responsible for monitoring symptoms and ensuring you are healthy to return to campus.

- ▶ Residents directed by the university to self-isolate must follow any staff directions related to self-isolation, including staying in their assigned space (on or off-campus), relocating to a temporary assignment, using Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) to minimize the risk of transmission, and any other guidance given by staff or health professionals.
- ▶ Campus housing residents are reminded that congregate living facilities such as that represented by campus housing may present certain risks of exposure to infectious diseases that can cause illness or death. Campus housing residents must adhere to any applicable guidelines and/or measures implemented by UCR Housing Services based on public health, government, and/or University guidelines to reduce risks associated with the spread of an infectious disease. However, the University makes no warranty with respect to the safety of the premises with regard to any infectious disease.
